Read the following case and answer the following questions given at the end of the case:

India Leather exports, an important foreign exchange earner for the country has been reportedly hit hard by the decision of some major US retail chains like Eddie Bauer, LL Bean, Timberland and Casual corner and a German company

Bader to boycott leather goods from India in protest against the ill-treatment of animals here. This move came shortly after the decisions by global retail chains Gap, Marks and L. Spencer, Liz claiborne and J.Crew not to buy Indian Leather goods. This development has a lot to do with the lobbying by the US based animal rights group people for ethical treatment of animals(PETA) for a ban on leather goods from India by documenting evidence of "Cruelty to animals" Killed for making leather. It has been reported that the overseas firms have officially communicated to the Indian Outfit of PETA that they will not be sourcing leather products from India until there is strict enforcement of animal protection laws. Following this, the Mumbai based Teja Industries, the official supplier for leather goods for Marks and Spencer in India, started outsourcing leather from other countries to manufacture procutts for the global chain.

11. In the light of the above discuss the implications of social activist groups for business.
12. With reference to this case, discuss the failure of the governments, council for leather exports and the leather industry and the lessons of this case.
13. What should the governments, council for leather exports and the leather industry do to overcome the problem?
